Woman Who Stole Baby Shoots Self Fatally In Chicago Room

By ROBERT T. LOUGHRAN
United Press International

CHICAGO (UPI) — A woman who was arrested a week ago for kidnapping a newborn baby shot and fatally wounded herself in a motel room Thursday.

Mrs. Jane Dunlap, 39, was awaiting a hearing on a kidnapping charge. Her life had been a series of heartbreaks during the past five weeks. Her husband, Lawrence, a Chicago traffic policeman, died June 20.

A few days later, her father died, and Mrs. Dunlap, 39, made the long trip to Southern Illinois for his funeral.

Then she had a miscarriage. That was especially hard for her because although her husband had four children by a previous marriage they did not have any of their own.

But doctors found that Mrs. Dunlap was pregnant again, and when she did not return, she called police. Charged With Kidnaping FBI Agents traced the woman to child and she told them it was hers. Cares For Baby

She treated the infant tenderly and stayed up late that night, caring for it.

The next day, Federal Bureau of Investigation agents came to the apartment and arrested Mrs. Dunlap. They said she had kidnapped the 18-day-old daughter of Mrs. Rose Burnham, 19, in downtown Metropolis, Ill.

Mrs. Burnham, whose husband is stationed at Ft. Campbell, Ky., had told officers that a "well-dressed, well-spoken" stranger with her blonde hair swept into a French twist had come to the home of her parents in Metropolis.

Mrs. Burnham said the woman persuaded her to let her take the Burnhams' younger daughter, Lori Ann, to be photographed for winning a "baby of the month" contest.

The young mother said she became slightly alarmed when the woman speeded off, and when she did not return, she called police.

New Scene Is Added To Stars Drama

Those who saw "Stars in My Crown," the Kentucky Lake Amphitheater production, during the first three weeks of its run might have trouble recognizing the show if they were to see it now.

The first act of "Stars" has undergone a major revamping, which, according to director Burnett Hobgood, has made the show move more quickly and which has cleared up a few parts of the plot which tended to be obscure.

Most of the material in the act is the same, but the Beaumont story which threads its way through the show as a unifying force is given more emphasis and the role of the West Kentucky rivers is explained more fully.

Two new scenes have been added to the act. One features Gen. Ulysses S. Grant who points out the importance of the river to the Civil War, and the other features Beaumont and John and Allen Barkley in a work scene. This scene prepares for the flood in which Beaumont's daughter and her husband are drowned.

The new act was introduced last week and was enthusiastically received.

"Stars in My Crown," which is having the most successful run of any outdoor drama in Kentucky, may be seen nightly except Sundays at 8 o'clock. Tickets are on sale at Rexall Drug Store in Mayfield, the Melody Mart in Paducah, the Village Inn at Kentucky Dam, and the Chamber of Commerce in Hopkinsville. Tickets are also available each night at the amphitheater box office.

Mail orders for tickets should be sent to the "Stars in My Crown" office, Box 679, Murray, Kentucky. Tickets are $2 and $3.

Old Road Map Shows Little Paved Area

Tom Rowlett brought in a road map today issued by the Purdon and Farmer Motor Company in 1923. Purdon and Farmer was owned by Dallam Purdon and Jack Farmer and they sold the GMC and Chevrolet cars and the GMC trucks.

The road map called Trail Markings, indicated highways in Kentucky and Tennessee. Extremely few paved roads were visible on the map and no paving at all could be seen west of the Tennessee river including Paducah.

The road to Egner's Ferry was an unpaved dirt road. The map was used by Rowlett's cousin Hamilton Stewart who drove from New Jersey to Murray. It took him one week in his Hummobile.

The Purdon and Farmer Motor Company had two phone numbers. The Cumberland Telephone Company number was 30 and the Independent Phone Company was 97.

Funeral, Don McDougal To Be Saturday

The funeral of Don McDougal will be held on Saturday at 10:00 a.m. at the J. H. Churchill Funeral Home with Rev. T. A. Thacker officiating. Burial will be in the Murray Cemetery.

McDougal, the 32-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Toy McDougal, died Wednesday morning of injuries suffered when he was beaten and robbed in a Chicago, Illinois parking lot last Friday as he was leaving a night school where he was continuing his education.

Evidence indicates that he was taken to the front of his car and made to lean on the hood while he was robbed, then viciously beaten. Police found him critically wounded wandering in the area. Identification had been stripped from him, however, police were able to trace his identity and called his parents here in Murray. They left immediately by plane for Chicago.

McDougal was an honor graduate at Murray High School and Murray State College and had been employed in research at Abbott Laboratories for the past three and one-half years.

He served for two years in the Navy before his employment at the Abbott Laboratories. He was living in Waukegan at the time and commuted to his work and to school.

McDougal is survived by his parents; two sisters Mrs. Lewis Dickerson of Trenton, Kentucky and Mrs. Virginia Reagan of Denver, Colorado.

Friends may call at the J. H. Churchill Funeral Home until the funeral hour.

American Wind Symphony Will Play On Paducah Waterfront

Conductor Robert Boudreau has announced that the three-day concert program to be played by the American Wind Symphony on the Paducah waterfront next week (July 30-31 and Aug. 1).

The first concert at 8:15 p. m. Tuesday will feature religious and classical selections. Using song sheets provided, the audience will be invited to join in singing four hymns — "Oh God Our Help in Ages Past"; "The Church's One Foundation"; "Crown Him With Many Crowns"; and "Onward Christian Soldiers".

The second concert, at 11 a. m. Wednesday, is for children. The various instruments will be explained and demonstrated as will their grouping into sections. Children will be invited to sit on the barge, right at the musicians' feet. Selections to be played are "Concerto" by Johann Ernst Altenburg; "Concerto" by Mario Kuri-Aldana; "Concerto" by Jorjome Weinberger; "Good Soldier Schweik" by Robert Frank Kurka; and "Serenade" by Willem Van Otterloo.

The final concert, Thursday at 8:15 p. m., will include "Grande Serenade" by Mozart; "West Virginia Epic" by Robert Russell Bennett; "Serenade" by Toshiro Mayuzumi; and music from "My Fair Lady".

The American Wind Symphony plays on its specially-constructed stage barge as it moves from port to port on the Ohio and other rivers. It's 45 musicians are chosen from colleges and universities in this country and abroad.

The barge will be moored on the Paducah riverfront at 1st and Broadway. Those attending are asked to bring folding chairs, blankets, newspapers — something to sit on.

This is the symphony's third visit to Paducah. It drew large crowds in 1960 and 1962 for its "concerts under the stars." Money is raised by private subscription to pay for the free concerts.

A three-day music and art festival, is being built around the concerts — three-day visit and the public is invited aboard the symphony's stage barge to see an exhibit of Nigerian art.

Chlorine Gas Leak Fells Many Children

READING, Pa. (UPI) — A chlorine gas tank sprang a leak at a crowded city swimming pool today and deadly fumes felled scores of youngsters.

More than 40 violently ill children, assisted by pool personnel, had to travel through the heaviest concentration of the gas to leave the area. The youngsters were found staggering around the street, some nearly unconscious, by the first police at the scene.

Every available ambulance, taxi-cab and private auto in the area was pressed into service to take the children to St. Joseph's Community General and Reading hospitals.

St. Joseph's reported 14 children taken there, while 23 were taken to community. General and nine to Reading. Many were given oxygen, but it was not determined immediately how many would be admitted.

S. William Richardson, a practical nurse at St. Joseph's Hospital who lives across the street from the pool, first noticed children leaving the pool area in their bathing suits and wandering about aimlessly and apparently dazed.

Mrs. Richardson telephoned city hall for an ambulance and rode to the hospital with the first children taken there. Her husband, Rev. Angelo Richardson, took several additional children to the hospital in his automobile.

Seven ambulances and a fire company emergency truck responded to the alarm and ferried children to the hospitals. In addition to taxis, cabs and private cars in the area, police said the mishap occurred while Andy Stopper, in serious condition at Community General was working on the tank Stopper, athletic director at Reading High School and director at the pool, apparently was adjusting a valve when a line burst.

The pool, known as the "South of Penn" pool, opened at 10 a. m. The mishap occurred about an hour later.

Firemen wearing gas masks and air packs searched the area in vain for any of the youngsters or pool equipment that had been left behind, but they reported everyone had escaped.

Thieves hit the L & R Shell Station at Hazel sometime between midnight Wednesday and 1:30 on Thursday morning, taking a large quantity of items from the station.

They gained admittance to the station by breaking a window in the rear, then opening the window. Missing from the station was the cash register, an old model Smith Corona weighing about 150 pounds, $1.75 in cash, a $10.00 check, a full case of Quaker State oil, a few tools, seven boxes of spark plugs, seven new tires, and about 32 cartons of cigarettes.

Keys to the outside doors, a pickup truck and the cash register were taken.

The station is owned by Lowell Calhoun and Royce Watkins. They said that a two and one-half ton truck was parked in the garage part of the station and that the thieves had to move around this truck with the heavy register, then lift it and haul it to get it out the window. Several persons must have been involved in the robbery, it was indicated.

The sheriff's office is working on this case.

A tire track was followed for some distance from the station in a southerly direction to ward Jones Mill road where it was lost.

Billy Rogers Ends Police Training

(AHTNC) — Army Pvt. Billy M. Rogers, whose wife, Sharon, lives on Route 3, Benton, Ky., completed eight weeks of military police training at the U. S. Army Training Center, Fort Gordon, Ga., July 19.

During the course, Rogers received instruction in such subjects as civil and military law, traffic control, map reading, prisoner-of-war control and self-defense.

The 23-year-old soldier, son of Mr. and Mrs. Taz S. Rogers, 1610 Hamilton Ave., Murray, Ky., entered the Army in March 1963 and completed basic combat training at Murray Training School and attended Murray State College.

Robbery And Assault Charges Not Pressed Against Two Men

Charge of robbery and assault and battery against two men apparently will not be prosecuted in General Sessions Court in Henry County.

Don Jones and Joe Donald Hespberry of near Hazel appeared in court last week before Judge Robert Swayne on the charges. The plaintiff, Dr. Richard Henry Rucker of Paducah, did not appear at the hearing to prosecute.

Judge Swayne said that legal costs have been assessed against all three men. Payment of the costs, he said, would conclude the case in his court.

Judge Swayne said that legal costs have been assessed against all three men. Payment of the costs, he said, would conclude the case in his court.

Councilman Prentice Lassiter last night reported to the City Council that all the paving has been completed in the city in the initial program planned by the street department. Another paving program will be undertaken later in the summer on streets that were not quite ready for the earlier program.

Mr. Lassiter, Chairman of the Street Committee reported that the paving apparently was well put down and the job generally was very acceptable. It was done by the Mayfield Paving Company.

He asked that the council approve the payment to the company of $20,566.00 for the paving done thus far.

Of the above amount the city paid one third, plus the cost of street crossings and repaving of streets already paved, while residents on each side of the newly paved streets paid one third the cost.

Mr. Lassiter said that the city would be able to put down the same amount of paving in the second half of the program, the latter part of the summer, as it did the first part.

It was decided last night to patch or replace curbs on the square where the curb is broken. City employees will do this work.

Evans McGraw, engineer employed by the city to aid on projects under the Accelerated Public Works Program of the Federal Government was at the meeting last night and recommended to the council that it reject the one bid received on July 17 for the extension of Olive Street, North Third, and the installation of metal curbs on Berry and Meadow.

The bid of $47,845.84 was too high for this work, he said, and he recommended that the project be advertised. Mr. McGraw had estimated a cost of $39,814 for the project.

An ordinance was passed last night approving the coming to Murray of a cable-vision company. The company would construct a tall television tower and would "pipe" the reception on this tower to homes in the city for a monthly fee. The company would provide 12 different channels to the home-viewer. The ordinance was passed on its first reading.

New street lights will be added in Richland subdivision, Wells Boulevard, and on the Hazel Highway and one light on South 14th between Main and Poplar street will be moved from Main to the center of the block.

Parking will be prohibited on one side of South 5th Street from Poplar to Elm street. An ordinance will also be drawn prohibiting parking on the east side of South 8th Street from Poplar to Sycamore.

Streets in Richland subdivision were accepted by the city.

Chief of Police Burman Parker was complimented by the mayor and council for the appearance of the city in regard to vacant lots. An effort has been made by city police to have all vacant lots kept mowed and obstructions at intersections removed for safety reasons.

Earthquake Kills And Hurts Many Hundreds Today

By STOYAN BRALOVIC
United Press International

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia (UPI) — A "catastrophic" earthquake today destroyed more than half the city of Skopje 200 miles south of Belgrade and was reported to have caused thousands of deaths and injuries.

The official Yugoslav news agency Tanjug quoted rescue teams in the stricken city of 200,000 as saying "over a thousand people have lost their lives" in the disaster.

"The number of injured exceeds several thousands," it added.

"Over 100,000 people were made homeless in a few seconds," Tanjug said, adding that "nearly three-quarters" of the city was destroyed.

Tanjung reported that "all 300 guests" in the 80-room hotel Macedonia, one of the main buildings in Skopje, were killed and the structure itself "completely shattered."

Other high buildings in the capital city of Yugoslavia were reported to have been toppled by the force of the earthquake. Much of the city was rebuilt after World War II. Bomb destruction and many of the buildings were modern, concrete structures.

"Tens of thousands of people are standing in the streets scared, many of them injured," Tanjug said.

The earthquake, which was centered in downtown Skopje, struck about 5:15 a. m., 12:15 a. m. (EDT).

Authorities were in touch with the city by radio, but virtually all other communications were cut off. Skopje, an important communications and trading center in southeastern Yugoslavia, is deep in the Balkan Mountains and only about 70 miles from the Greek border. It is built near the site of the ancient city of Scupi, which was destroyed by an earthquake in 518 AD.

Eyewitnesses said many residents ran screaming into the streets wearing only their night clothes when the earthquake hit.

The Yugoslav army sent units to the scene to help in rescue work. A special mercy train was ordered from Belgrade to Skopje. At least 100 doctors and many nurses headed toward the scene.

President Peter Stambolic of the Federal Executive Council flew to Skopje to survey the damage and to help direct rescue operations.

In somber tones, Radio Belgrade gave details of the devastation as they came in minute-by-minute on this second major earthquake to hit Yugoslavia in the past 2 1/2 years.

In January, 1961, a series of more than 100 tremors hit the country on the Adriatic coast northwest of Belgrade. This disaster destroyed scores of villages and left 70,000 homeless, although only four persons were killed.

But this time, the loss of lives and property apparently was going to be far greater.

The first major earth shock this morning hit with shattering force while the city's population was asleep. It apparently was followed by a series of minor tremors and after-shocks.

One eyewitness, the pilot Blagojevi, said he was staying in a hotel near the main railway station and jumped out of bed when the first shock wave hit.

"The whole room was trembling and furniture was dancing everywhere," he said.

He said he looked out his window and saw buildings across the street "toppling to the ground."

Blagojevi said he was knocked to the floor, got up and reached the corridor just before the door frame of his room splintered and collapsed.

Other Yugoslavs at the scene said residents of the city had no inkling of danger before the disaster struck.

The Yugoslav newsman who was near the city said that, in addition to the "thousands" killed and the other major structures were flattened.

They fell like cut trees, they went down with a fumbling boom," he said.

"The city presents a horrible sight," he said. "Many buildings, including those monumental and most beautiful, have been demolished. Many other multi-storied buildings in the center of the city and the suburbs do not exist any more."

Tanjung said the earthquake also was felt in the towns of Pristina, Gnjilane and Djerdan Jankovic, near Skopje, and in Kacanik Canyon, 39 miles from the city.

The Yugoslav army sent units to the scene and at least 100 doctors and many nurses headed to Skopje from Belgrade.

Tanjung called it a "catastrophic earthquake."

Skopje is the capital of the Yugoslav republic of Macedonia, 200 miles south of Belgrade and about 70 miles from the Greek border. It is a communications center and a market for Macedonia's tobacco.

Nellie Fox To Add New Laurel To His Record-Studied Crown

By FRED DOWN

United Press International
Nelson Fox, who already owns eight major league records, will soon achieve another statistical goal that will place him among the greatest second basemen in baseball history.

The combative little Chicago White Sox second baseman — who just might be the only fellow in the American League who hasn't conceded to the New York Yankees — needs only three more hits to reach 2,500 for his career. That's a total reached by only five second basemen — all hall of famers — Eddie Collins, Nap Lajoie, Frankie Frisch, Charlie Gehringer and Rogers Hornsby.

Fox knocked in three runs with two singles and scored the White Sox fourth run of the game Thursday in a 4-3 victory over the Detroit Tigers. The win enabled the second-place White Sox to move within eight games of the Yankees, whose six-game winning streak was ended by a 5-0 loss to the Los Angeles Angels.

Indians Over Twins

The Cleveland Indians edged the Minnesota Twins 3-2, the Kansas City Athletics defeated the Boston Red Sox 2-0, and the Baltimore Orioles downed the Washington Senators 4-2, in other American League games.

Fox, 35, singled home Mike Herschberger in the third inning and rode home on Dave Nicholson's triple. He also singled home two more runs in the seventh inning to boost the White Sox into a 4-0 lead and provide the necessary cushion for two relief pitchers to preserve Joe Horlen's fifth victory.

Major league records held by Fox include most consecutive games without striking out, most years leading the majors in fewest strikeouts, most consecutive years leading in singles, most consecutive games played at second base, most years leading second basemen in chances, most seasons with 600 at bats and most years leading second basemen in putouts.

Twins Three-Hitter

Ken McBride pitched a three-hitter to win his 12th game for the Angels, who tagged fireballer Al Downing with his second loss. Downing paved the way for his own defeat with two walks in the first inning followed by a double by Felix Torres and a two-run single by Ken Hunt.

Willie Kirkland's three-run eighth-inning homer brought the Indians from behind and provided relief pitcher Gary Bell with his fifth win. The Twins' runs came as a result of a homer by Johnny Goryl in the third inning and an error, a sacrifice bunt and a single by Jimmie Hall in the seventh.

The Athletics completed a sweep of a four-game series with the Red Sox as Ed Rakow, Bill Fischer and John Wyatt collaborated in a six-hitter. Fischer, who pitched the middle six innings, won his ninth game while 13-game winner Bill Monbouquette suffered his seventh loss for the Red Sox.

Robin Roberts received credit for his eighth win of the season and the 252nd of his career by spacing eight hits over eight innings before turning over the late-inning close-out relief to Stu Miller. Johnny Orsino's two-run single and Johnny Powell's homer were the big blows for the Orioles.

Mays Is On Move But It Just May Be Too Late For The Giants

By FRED DOWN

United Press International
Willie Mays is on the move but even a 419 batting surge may be too little too late for the San Francisco Giants.

The $100,000 centerfielder who had bogged down close to the 250 mark this season has made 13 hits in his last 31 at bats to boost his average to .281. The Giants have moved with him—six victories in their last 10 games—but that isn't going to be enough to overtake the Los Angeles Dodgers unless they do an end fold to end 'em all.

The Giants ran their current winning streak to four games Thursday when they whipped the New York Mets 5-4, as Mays drove in four runs with a homer, double and single. Willie McCovey also weighed in with three hits and knocked in two runs in San Francisco's 12-hit attack.

The loss was the 19th in a row on the road for the Mets—equalling a 47-year old major league record for futility away from home.

The Mets made 12 hits, including a run-producing single and a two-run homer by Duke Snider, but left 10 runners on base against the combined pitching of Billy Pierce, Bob Bolin and Billy Hoelt. Bolin, who yielded one run and six hits in 3 1/2 innings, scored his sixth victory against three losses.

The victory enabled the third-place Giants to move within 7 1/2 games of the Los Angeles Dodgers, who lost to the Pittsburgh Pirates, 6-2, ending Sandy Koufax' nine-game winning streak.

The St. Louis Cardinals defeated the Milwaukee Braves 3-1, the Cincinnati Reds nipped the Chicago Cubs 3-2, and the Houston Astros shut out the Philadelphia Phillies, 3-0.

Roberto Clemente's three-run homer and Tom Sisk's strong five-inning relief pitching enabled the Pirates to end Koufax' streak which dated back to June 1. Koufax struck out 12 batters but never was even after Clemente's homer with Bill Virdon and Manny Mota aboard in the third inning. It was Clemente's 10th homer of the season and Sisk's first big league win.

Lee Burdette topped Warren Spahn in a pitching duel between former roommates when the Cardinals scored two fourth-inning runs on Bill White's double, singles by Stan Musial and Tim McCarver and errors by Denis Monks and Gene Oliver. It was Burdette's eighth win of the season.

Spahn, pitching for the first time since July 7 when he was sidelined with a sore elbow, yielded eight hits and no walks in eight innings. It was his fifth setback against 12 victories this season.

Johnny Edwards' ninth-inning sacrifice fly drove in the winning run for the Reds, who beat Bob Buhl for the 10th time in 12 lifetime decisions. Until Edwards delivered,

Buhl had shut out the Reds since the first inning when a walk, Yada Pinson's single, an infield out and Frank Robinson's single produced Pete Runnels and Carl Warwick and Jim Wynn's sacrifice fly.

THE LID'S OFF!

LOUISVILLE 378 — Louisville police searched today for a tall, gray top hat stolen from youthful "sandwich man" Ted Marshall of New Haven, Wednesday in the downtown area. Marshall, whose front-and-back signs advertised "The Stephen Foster Story" at Bardonia, said he borrowed the hat from Jay Willoughby, who portrays Foster in the pageant.

Dear Abby . . .

THROW HIM BACK, HONEY!

Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: My boy friend has a very cute co-worker. They used to eat lunch together every day—away from the office. Then I put my foot down and made him promise he wouldn't take her to lunch any more. Well, yesterday they were BOTH carried out of the office feet first with seafood poisoning. It turned out they had lunch together at a little roadside about a mile from the office. I didn't know the girl had been poisoned too until I came to drive him home from the hospital where they were taken to have their stomachs pumped. (She was just leaving as I pulled up.) When I told my boy friend I knew that he'd taken that girl to lunch again, he said he'd "bumped into her" there. What would you do in my place, Abby?

JEALOUS

DEAR JEALOUS: Wait until your boy friend gets his strength back and then tell him that his fish tales don't set too well on your stomach, either. Then let him off the hook.

DEAR ABBY: My parents are against my marrying a certain boy because of money and social position. He doesn't have any. Abby, he is the nicest boy I have ever gone with. I have some with boys whose fathers had more money, but none of them ever treated me like this one does. In fact, I would hate to tell you what some of those so-called "high-class" boys were really like. Don't you think if two people love each other, that is all that is necessary to make a go of marriage?

SMALL TOWN GIRL: DEAR GIRL: Marriage is for men and women—not boys and girls. If you are both over 21, sure of your love, and the "boy" is self-supporting and respectable, your chances for a lasting marriage are good.

DEAR ABBY: I never bother my neighbors but they can tell you every move I make. My husband works nights and sleeps days so I leave my back door open in case someone comes to deliver something. That way my husband won't have to get up to let them in. I've got the milkman coming, the egg man, the plumber, and other men who have to get inside for something. Well, my neighbor to the south told my neighbor to the north that I had a steady stream of men going into my house all the time. I am still a nice-looking woman even if I have had eleven children. I think the neighbors are just jealous. I told one of them if she wanted to know who all the men were to come on over and I'd introduce her. How can I stop my nosy neighbors from running their mouths?

INNOCENT: DEAR INNOCENT: You can't. But if you know everything is on the up and up, you can stop worrying about it.

DEAR ABBY: I just want "ICE-BERG" to know that I am with her all the way, and you may print my letter. Who do men think they are anyway? They neglect their obligations of keeping a marriage alive, and then they complain because their wives are "frigid." Who can stand a person who isn't nice to be near? I'll thaw out when my man washes up. I'm Paducah, Ky., and then to Chicago. They charged her with interstate transportation of a kidnapped victim. "I just wanted something to love," Mrs. Dunlap sobbed.

Authorities released her on her own recognizance, pending a mental examination, and scheduled a hearing for next Thursday.

Thursday, Mrs. Dunlap went to a Southwest Side motel Sahara Inn and obtained a room. She scribbled a note which said, "My name is Mary Ann Dunlap. Please get in touch with my lawyer, Mal Coghlan." Then she drew a 22 caliber revolver and shot herself in the abdomen.

A guest saw her arm through the partly-open door. She was rushed to Vol Solbrig Hospital. She was still conscious.
"If I all built up inside me," she said on the operating table, "I just don't want to live anymore." She died.
Her body still was not claimed hours later.

Rabid Bat Found Near Hopkinsville

HOPKINSVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Western Kentucky health officials today observed a captive live bat brought in Wednesday as a possible carrier of rabies and planned to run tests on it when it dies.

One boy has been bitten and another bat reportedly was seen attacking a dog last week.
Robert Mundy, Christian County Health Department educator, said Bruce Johnson, 7, was bitten by another bat he had placed in a fruit jar last week.

The rodent bit the boy on the finger when he prodded it with a stick.

Mundy said the small, insect-eating bats in the area are shy and normally do not bother humans.

The bat that bit young Johnson was not rabid, but was a healthy carrier of the disease.

As a result of the bite, the boy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nealus Johnson, now is undergoing the painful 14-injection Pasteur antirabies treatment.

The Kentucky Department of Fish and Wildlife Resources plans to send a team to capture a number of area bats for laboratory study, Mundy said, since "it is quite possible there are other rabid bats in the region, but we don't know yet."
